DECLARATION OF JASON A. ZWEIG IN SUPPORT OF (1) FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS SETTLEMENT; (2) CLASS COUNSEL’S APPLICATION FOR ATTORNEYS’ FEES, REIMBURSEMENT OF LITIGATION EXPENSES, AND AN INCENTIVE AWARD TO THE NAMED PLAINTIFF; AND (3) THE PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Jason A. Zweig hereby declares as follows:

1. I am a partner in the law firm of Hagens Berman Sobol Shapiro LLP (“Hagens Berman”), the Court-appointed class counsel for the Class in this matter. I am the Hagens Berman partner currently handling this matter on a day-to-day basis. I have personal knowledge of the matters stated herein and, if called upon, I could and would competently testify thereto.

2. Approximately three weeks ago, I received a phone call in my Chicago office from someone named John Levin. Mr. Levin purported to be a member of the Class in this case. I was unable to answer the phone when Mr. Levin called, and he left a voicemail, along with his phone number.

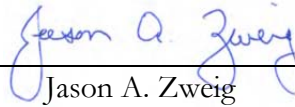

3. Later that same day, I called Mr. Levin and reached him. During that conversation, Mr. Levin claimed he was a member of the Class and that he disagreed with Class Counsel’s position that a second opt-out opportunity should not be allowed. At no time during the conversation did he ever specifically confirm that he held the Bonds that are the subject of this lawsuit. Indeed, over the last year, I have received numerous calls, emails, and claim forms from people claiming to be class members, but who did not own the Bond subject to this lawsuit.

4. In addition to being unable to confirm he held the relevant Bond, Mr. Levin stated that he had purchased his bonds after December 2006. I explained to him that this class action is only for those who purchased their bonds prior to December 19, 2006 and held them continuously through today. I informed Mr. Levin that since he did not meet the class criteria, he was not part of the Class, and that the proposed class settlement, as well as its release, did not bind him. I also told him that since he was not a class member, there was no settlement to opt-out from, and therefore, his concern about being unable to opt-out was unfounded.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and accurate.
